SIGNS OF DESIRE TO END STRIKE.

MOVES BEHIND THE SCENES.

Although they are no more than straws in the wind, there are several indications that an all-round feeling exists in favour of ending the strike and boycott.

Friday is now stated to have been definitely fixed as the day of departure from Canton of a peace delegation to Hongkong. Over twenty merchants will be included, it is reported.

Yesterday the Hongkong Chinese General Chamber of Commerce held a committee meeting which discussed the details of a reception for the Canton traders.

Meanwhile representatives of Canton's four leading commercial associations—all designated as "chambers"—have interviewed Mr. Wong Ching-wai, one of the principals of the Kuomintang Commission of Government—and he is said to have lent a favourable ear. There is, however, a qualification. Mr. Wong is quoted as having approved a mission to Hongkong, more for the purpose of ascertaining what can be done, than declaring an end to the present conditions.

Yesterday afternoon the Steamboat Co.'s s.s. "Honam" came down with about 400 native passengers—a record number—who state that they made their way to the ship, when in Canton harbour, unmoored by pickets.

Another sign of the times is a report from Canton that the present mercantile movement was engendered by the Hongkong Association of District Commercial Guilds, also that the sponsors of the Canton peace delegation, have put out feelers to the Strike Executive. The strike leaders, on the other hand, seem to be divided. One section is adamant and strongly disfavour any mission to Hongkong. Another party is reported to have declared itself as willing to abide by what the "majority of the people" say. In other words they will be guided by the Canton Government but they will not turn an entirely deaf ear to the merchants and middle class.

PRINCE GEORGE

ATTENDS PRIVATE CHINESE BANQUET.

LAST NIGHT'S FUNCTIONS.

H.R.H. Prince George, Sir Matthew Nathan (former Governor of Hongkong), Vice-Admiral Sir Edwin Alexander-Sinclair (Commander-in-Chief, China Station) were guests at a private Chinese banquet at the Chinese Merchants' Club, China Building, last night.

The Hon. Mr. Chow Shou-sun and the Hon. Mr. R. H. Kotewall were the principal hosts.

A number of officers from the Army, Navy and Civil Service were also present.

After the banquet the party proceeded to the Lee Gardens where a special building was set apart for a presentation by Miss Pak Wan-ha, the Northern Chinese "star" who is now performing in the Colony.

BLIND HOME.

TO-DAY'S SALE OF WORK.

A sale of work in aid of the Industrial Institution for the Blind, Kowloon, opened at the Y.W.C.A. rooms, Came Road, this morning and will be continued till 5 p.m.

Useful and artistically made articles of knitted woollen, embroidery and other goods adorned the tables and the blind girls made a striking appeal for sympathy by singing at intervals.

London, November 17.—The decision of the Admiralty to reduce the second cruiser squadron attached to the Atlantic fleet by the withdrawal of the U.S.S. Mississippi from the Washington Conference has been carried out by the transfer of the H.M.S. Calliope to the North America station.

Under the light of the moon, the Calliope has now joined the U.S.S. Pensacola and U.S.S. Pensacola in the North America station.

COMPULSORY VOTING.

Australia has committed its political destinies to what may be considered safe hands. This is not so remarkable as the fact that in the elections just decided, the vote taken was a compulsory one.
By law it is enacted that every voter must exercise his or her privilege. Such an enactment, at first sight, may seem peculiar.
That it is a wise one cannot be denied. If troubles can be laid at the doors of politicians, it is as well to apportion the blame fairly, and to suggest that those who elect politicians must be held, in part, responsible. Australia's lead in this respect is likely to be widely followed. Unfortunately, for obvious reasons, it cannot be followed in Hongkong, and its significance cannot be pictured in local colours. But it is possible to imagine it in operation in Home politics. Those who have had experience of General Elections can speak with authority of the heart-breaking experiences of those vitally interested in such things; of the apathy of the electors, the bearing of the state of the weather on the size of the poll, and those additional ones who think it right to abstain from voting booth in case of incipient violence. Consider nonsense. It will not instill into electors the act of thinking in its entirety, but it will go a long way towards that very desirable thing.

It may prompt the electors to weigh a vote before recording it and to "take intelligent thought and interest in the questions which vex the world. It seems to be the nearest approach to the ideal of the Referendum that, so far, has been adopted. Each party goes to the electorate with a manifesto of its aims and objects. The issue, so far as the recognised Parties are concerned, is quite clear, and adherents and wavering alike know what is before them and to what, by recording a vote, they have committed themselves. Thus in the election just concluded, Australia has decided on what may be termed constitutional government government along safe and tried paths; government by evolution and not by revolution. Fortunately indeed must Australians consider themselves in having the issue so clearly defined—and defined, not so much by clarity of reasoning
by men of the standard of Mr.
S. M. Bruce, but by the clarity of the consequence of "Red" domination as shown in various ways, but in no clearer way than by the recent attempt to disorganise the shipping of the Commonwealth.
It will be found that compulsory voting has justified itself. Conscientious objectors—and they figure as voters—may have a reasonable objection to such a law, but if a "spoiled" voting paper constitutes the size of a vote, they have an easy way out of their predicament. In any case Australia has shown a commendable example which should be followed without delay by the Home Country.
Only in this way can there be shown the real feeling of the country, and encouragement be given to bold and fearless Government.

THE WRONG WAY.

It is difficult to know which to regard as the more dangerous those who hereupon such idle chatter as would give the whole world a wrong idea of the value, merit, or the writers and lecturers. Consider country whether or not they have taken the trouble to verify the facts. The problem of the future relations of Western Europe and the continent of Asia being in the centre of world politics, it is natural that the contents of a new periodical which is avowedly provided a meeting place for the minds of East and West should come in for keen and critical survey.

Seeking, as it informs its readers, to cover the entire field of political, economic, and cultural relations between East and West from a "constructional and forward-looking viewpoint" and to interpret the Renaissance that is dawning over the East against the background of her age-long civilisation, it is inevitable that the "New Orient," a quarterly review still in its infancy, should raise issues over which there is bound by the nature of things to be considerable divergence of opinion. One is, however, led to expect something to justify the claim that the journal is to be "the meeting place for the keenest,
most sincere and sympathetic minds of East and West" and the current quarterly issue fails to convince in this respect. One looks in vain for even the bare merits of the case which the West has to offer regarding its relations with the East, and in its place one finds statements such as that of the editor, Mr. Syud Hossain, who when referring to incidents in India and other colonies and dependencies, speaks of "the motive of inordinate gain leading to the establishment of political control followed every now and again by methods of frightfulness in order that the population shall remain quiet and docile." Other contributors to the journal are well known in connection with the democratic movement. Whilst the undue stress they have laid on that aspect of Western development in the East which is concerned with the quest of things material may be due to a genuine fear lest the spirit of Asia, the creator of all the great religious and philosophic ideas, might be absorbed in gross materialism, it is difficult to grasp how the representation of Western methods as those of imperialistic economic development enforced against the will of the East and to its detriment, is likely to lead to the creation of the spirit of harmony such writers refer to as necessary for the ushering in of the millennium.
Mr. Bertrand Russell, for instance, is to the fore with an article on the Canton and Shanghai shooting in which he expresses doubts that the first shots at Canton came from the Chinese, and states that in both cases the shooting was the result of officials in charge losing their heads. Here again quite apart from the merits of his case (it is difficult to see that there are any in view of overwhelming evidence to the contrary), one is led to wonder how the representation of Western men as profiting by the weaknesses of China to inflict terrible humiliations is likely to lead to the creation of the best possible relations between Britain and China" which Mr. Russell declared to be a necessity at the dinner of Chinese students in London. It may be that the time is opportune
for the West to re-adjust its point of view and code of values in relation to the East but surely the world of beauty, humanity and mutual helpfulness which it is the object of the democratic movement to create can hardly be built on foundations of hate fostered by anti-foreign foreigners.

INJURIES.

While in the vicinity of Castle Peak, travelling in the direction of W. Long on Monday evening, a Ford car came in collision with a motor car returning from the ter-result of the force of the impact.

Considerable damage was done to the Ford but fortunately none of the occupants of either vehicle was seriously injured.

of the Ford as were also Sergeant and Mrs. Langley, of the Au Tau

WAR DEBTS.

BRITAIN DOES SOME COLLECTING.

DISCUSSION WITH FRANCE.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, November 17.

Speaking in the House of Commons, Mr. Winston Churchill said he had received a letter from M. Tardieu during the recess intimating the acceptance of the principle of the arrangement in the discharge of the French debt of annuities of £23 millions over 62 years subject to a settlement of outstanding important points.

Discussion would shortly be resumed.

The British Government had been invited to send representatives to Britain to negotiate the funding of their war debt.

Disensions would start very shortly.

Mr. Churchill announced that an settlement had been reached with Romania and hoped agreement would be reached regarding the war debts of Portugal, Greece, and Yugoslavia in the next few months.

U.S. AND ITALY.

New York, November 17.

Confidences are being held between American bankers and the Italian debt commission to prepare the way for the flotation of a $50,000,000 loan to Italy in the course of the next week or two.

Morgan's, who have already advanced another $50,000,000 to absorb the exchange stabilisation credit at present outstanding head the underwriting syndicate.

FRANCE'S PROBLEM.

MOMENTOUS FINANCIAL DEBATE.

SOCIALISTS' DECISION.

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, November 17.

The Socialist Party's decision not to contest the Government's financial proposals is important in view of the opening in the Chamber of Deputies to-day of a momentous financial debate which is expected to last at least a month and in which Herculean efforts will be required to obtain even a narrow majority for the Government's proposals in both houses.

The Government's difficulties are increased by the fact that this most controversial proposal must be voted by December 8 when 2½ milliards of Treasury Bonds fall due for repayment.

Having no funds to redeem the Bonds and in order to avoid resorting to inflation the Government proposes to suspend payment and give holders other Bonds in exchange.

ONE LAW.

LABOUR AND FASCIST BODIES.

ALLEGATIONS REPUTED.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, Nov. 17.

Labour's allegations that the Government is discriminating against Communists and favouring Fascists was vented in the House of Commons.

Mr. J. H. Thomas asked for an explanation of the action of the Director of Prosecutions in the case of four National Fascist who were recently bailed over for forcibly taking possession of a Labour newspaper "van."

Mr. Thomas declared the action would destroy public confidence in the impartial administration of justice.

Sir D. Hogg, in reply, said the Director of Public Prosecutions was of the opinion that the evidence was not sufficient to support a charge of larceny.

Sir Douglas was satisfied that that view was right.

No political pressure of any kind had been put on the Public Prosecutor, as was the case of the prosecution of Mr. Campbell of the "Workers' Weekly" a year ago when the then Attorney-General, on behalf of the Cabinet, instructed the Public Prosecutor.

London, November 17. The Foreign Office denied that an official slight was put upon M. Rakovsky inasmuch as he held the status of a Charge d'Affaires and not that of an Ambassador, and expressed that the former was not pro-

THE NEW ERA.

GERMANY ACCEPTING LOCARNO.

CABINET'S DECISION.

(Reuter's Service.)

Berlin, Nov. 17.

The Cabinet "this morning authorised Hans Stremann to draft Bills to give effect to the Locarno treaties.

The Bills will be submitted for the approval of the Federal Premiers on Thursday, and subsequently will be submitted to the Reichstag.

Berlin, Nov. 17.

The Cabinet's decision regarding the Locarno treaties, cabled earlier, indicates that the Government and President approve of the Locarno agreement and intend to sign it on December 1, which the Federal Premiers and the Reichstag will certainly sanction.

The Government is convinced that Locarno signifies the beginning of a new political era in Europe.

On the contrary, the newspapers do not enthuse over the "alleviations" in the Rhineland.

Nationalist journals point out that the Allied Notes do not mention the régime in the Saar revision, revision of the Rhineland agreement, or restrictions in German civil aviation.

BRITISH LABOUR'S VIEWS.

London, Nov. 17.

The Labour Party has decided to move an amendment to Mr. Austen Chamberlain's simple motion in favour of ratifying the Locarno treaty at to-morrow's debate in the House of Commons.

The amendment sets forth that while agreeing to the ratification and expressing satisfaction at the impending entry of Germany into the League of Nations and the improvement of international relations evinced at Locarno, the House holds the opinion that the real test of the Treaty depends on whether it is followed by disarmament and regrets it does not contain definite provision on that subject.

The House will further be invited to express the view that the Treaty should be followed by positive steps to secure the adhesion of Russia to the League, and its participation in European agreements.

SYRIAN PEACE.

OVERTURES BY FRENCH AUTHORITIES.

(Reuter's Service.)

Cairo, November 17.

The Syrian newspaper "Alifibas" learns that peace negotiations have been opened by the French authorities with the Jebel Druse Sultan El Atrash.

AMERICA'S SHIPPING.

NO SUBSIDY NEXT YEAR.

(Reuter's Service.)

New York, November 17.

It is understood President Coolidge does not intend to recommend a shipping subsidy in his annual message to Congress which he proposes to transmit in writing.

FRANCE'S FINANCES.

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, November 17.

The Socialist Party by 36 votes to 12 has decided not to contest the Government's financial programme at to-day's meeting of the Chamber.

Halifax, N.S., November 17.

Nine of the crew of the American coastguard vessel "Morill" were drowned near Shelburne owing to a small boat capsizing in a heavy squall.—Reuter's American Service.

CHINESE FUNCTION.

London, November 17.

Heavy buying from New York, speculative buying here and the reduction of rubber stocks in London to 4,500 tons are responsible for the rise of spot rubber in Mincing Lane yesterday to 54 pence a pound and an advance of three pence a pound on all forward quotations.

Mr. Gompertz at which sixty persons were present, including the twelve guests among them Sir Henry Gollan, Sir Henry Potlock and others. The Hon. Mr. Chow Shou-son attended and in a short speech expressed the feeling of the Chinese merchant community of the departure of the Queen of honours.

YESTERDAY'S PRESENTATION.

Yesterday afternoon the staff of the Supreme Court assembled in the Puisne Judge's Chamber, and presented Mr. Justice Gompertz with a silver salver which was inscribed as follows:

KOWLOON ITEMS.

ACTIVITIES OF THE K. R. A.

NOISES AND RICSHAS.

the Colonial Secretary's Office stating that the matter of Cox Road also was receiving consideration.

Crackers and Ricschas.

A letter was read from a correspondent suggesting certain areas in which the firing of crackers should be disallowed.

After a short discussion it was agreed it would not be advisable to deal with this matter at the present time.

The letter also called attention to the inferior type of ricksha now being for hire and suggested several improvements which would be appreciated.

After a lengthy discussion on the merits and noise of these vehicles, a sub-committee was appointed to investigate the present type of ricksha and make such recommendations as are deemed advisable in the circumstances; also that reference to the noises of rickshas be embodied in the Hon. Secretary's reply to the letter of the Colonial Secretary on noises in Kowloon and asking the assistance of the Association in this matter.

Resignation of Mr. Hyde.

After some discussion the Hon. Secretary was instructed to write to the Colonial Secretary asking him kindly to advise the Committee of the nature of the noises complained of, so that the committee might, as requested by the Colonial Secretary, recommend a line of action.

Kowloon Ricschas.

The Hon. Secretary was further instructed to draw the attention of the Colonial Secretary to the present obsolete type of Kowloon ricksha of which the Committee had complained and an improvement in which would reduce street noise.

Harmston's circus is showing in Singapore. It will probably come to Hongkong.

Murray Path will be closed from this morning until the completion of repairing there. It will probably remain closed for about a fortnight.

The Manila Carnival is to be held from January 30 to February 14, 1926. The Committee has issued an illustrated booklet which gives full particulars.

Recently the Colombo wireless authorities have been endeavouring to provide radio entertainments almost every night owing to their growing popularity.

A deer, dashing out of Epping Forest, was knocked down by a car driven by Dr. J. H. Nichol, of Chingford, Essex. It scrambled to its feet again and, minus an antler, darted back into the forest, apparently unhurt. The car, however, was badly damaged. Dr. Nichol had his nose broken and a shoulder and thigh injured. His three passengers were also hurt.

White searching the cottage of a man named William Pritchard, who died suddenly at Old Windsor, in his ninetieth year, the police found £326 in sovereigns and £384 in Treasury notes hidden in tin boxes and cigar cases in various parts of the house. Pritchard had for many years lived alone in the cottage, doing all his own work and cooking his meals.

The return of notifiable diseases for last week in Hongkong shows three cases of diphtheria (two fatal), and two fatal cases of enteric fever. One of the diphtheria cases was a Japanese. All the others were Chinese. One of the enteric cases was an imported case. A fatal (imported) case of rabies was also recorded, the victim being a Chinese. The daily return for Monday, issued yesterday, contained only one new Chinese case of enteric.

"A Perfect Day" prompts a reader to ask whether a wee Hieland laddie's idea of a perfect day—"A shookey-shoo on the yest' day, and cream-tae ma parritch in the morning," is not an excellent one.

Messrs. Harland and Wolff have just launched from their Govan shipyard two strongly built steel lighters for Elder, Dempster and Co., having a deadweight carrying capacity of 80 tons.

These lighters will be used in loading the owners' vessels in the West Coast of Africa, for which purpose they are specially designed.

The radio interest has grown to such an extent in Japan that some of the middle school authorities in Tokyo have issued orders that students shall not "listen in" during certain hours of the evening, but shall devote those hours to their studies. The school heads found upon investigation that the youngsters were neglecting their school work in the evening to listen to the radio.

A zoologist is said to have found that the dividends of a firm in the fur trade are affected by sunspots. The argument is that the abundance—or otherwise—of fur animals decides the trade's prosperity: that the supply of animals depends on the food available, which in turn depends on cycles of warmer or colder weather; while "there is evidence that those cycles are affected by the cyclic movements of 'spots on the sun'." Weather is the chief influence affecting harvests, of course; but it is not the only influence.

The above "chain" reminds one of Darwin's demonstration that the success of a clover crop in a certain district might depend on the number of cats there! Clover flowers are fertilised by bumble-bees, whose arch-enemy is the field mouse. If the mice are not kept down by cats—or otherwise—wholesale destruction of bees follows, with disastrous results to the clover!

The proceedings of the Diet, which heretofore have been something of a mystery to the general Japanese public, will be given the people by radio, if the plans of a Tokyo radio-casting company receive approval.

More and more nearly, as one grows older, the teachings of Christ, stripped of the dogmas that others have put upon them, apply with amazing wisdom and knowledge to modern conditions says the author, Mr. Hugh Walpole.

What is said to be the nearest approach to a blue carnation ever grown has been on exhibition at the autumn show of the Royal Horticultural Society. When viewed from certain angles the flower has a distinctly bluish tinge.

The direct annual cost of sickness and death attributable to malaria is between £50,000,000 and £60,000,000, according to Dr. Balfour, Director of the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, who in a speech at the Guild House, Eccleston Square, pointed out that malaria was constantly warring against the Empire, picking off officers attached to the mercantile marine and crippling trade. He added that the world's annual death roll from malaria was 2,000,000.

It seems that few telephone subscribers in England are aware of a service which the telephone exchanges are prepared to supply. For the sum of three pence daily subscribers may arrange to be called at any hour of the day or night they desire, the Post Office (which has jurisdiction over the telephone service), acting as a sort of governmental alarm clock. At the hour named the bell will be set ringing and will continue until someone answers. Other services which the telephone exchanges are prepared to render are the giving of the exact Greenwich time or the daily weather forecast, both of which cost one penny.

A tragic incident occurred a few weeks ago near Balmoral, though it may sound trivial enough. Briefly, the King failed to recognise a man he had known in the days when he was Prince.

After someone had jogged his memory he was very much upset, remarking that he'd far rather have lost the Derby by a head than have forgotten an old acquaintance. This was a bald statement of fact, not an exaggeration due to momentary regret.

BOXING DATES.

THREE LOCAL TOURNEYS FIXED.

COMMITTEE ELECTED.

December 7, December 24, and January 14, have been fixed provisionally as the dates for the 2nd, 3rd and 4th tournaments of this season by the Hongkong Boxing Association.

It will be seen that none of these dates is on a Saturday. This, it is gathered, is due to the fact that the Theatre Royal has been heavily booked up during the cold months.

Some excellent contests are being tentatively discussed for the respective evenings.

The H.K.B.A. has elected a boxing committee which is proceeding with the business of promoting excellent sport.

Saturday's bouts.

Yesterday Mr. J. Brook, manager, assured the "China Mail" that the programme as announced would be carried through.

In the course of other inquiries it was learned that all the contestants are putting the finishing touches to their training and all report exceedingly fit.

A controversy has arisen as to the merits of certain boxers but the consensus of opinion among the keenest "fans" is that the programme could not have been better arranged. One gentleman puts it thus: If a boxer maintains he is "class" the best thing he can do is to get into the ring as often as possible and substantiate his claim. Then he will become automatically matched to any one he wishes.

BAD WATER: SMALL BASKETS.

Worcester, Sept. 28.

After a long day's fishing on the banks of the River Severn today, the Long Eaton and District Angling Federation won the National Federation of Anglers' challenge cup and gold medals presented by the "Daily Mirror" with the low aggregate weight of 5lbs. 10oz. 8dr.

Baskets were very small owing to the bad state of the river.

The Lincoln Angling Association was second with a catch of 5lbs. 30oz. 13dr., and the Provincial Angling Association, of Birmingham, was third with 5lbs. 0oz. 0dr.

The individual championship was won by G. H. Allen, of the Provincial team, with 3lbs. 8oz. 12dr.

The next biggest individual catch was that of P. H. Smith, of Newark, who weighed in 2lbs. 8oz. 12dr., and the third largest was the basket of G. H. Butler with 2lbs. 3oz.

Anglers lined the whole way from Diglis Lock to Severn Stoke, a distance of 7½ miles.

BRITISHER DEFEATS FILIPINO.

(Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 7.

Ernies Jarvis, the English flyweight, maintained his winning streak in the American ring last night by gaining the judge's decision over Young Dencio of the Philippine Islands in an exciting round bout.

Jarvis was credited by newspaper men with winning seven out of the ten rounds.

There were no knockdowns.

Jarvis weighed 111½ pounds and Dencio 105½.

ODDS AND ENDS

Distinguished Rabbits.

Lady Rachel Byng, Lady Helen Forbes, Lady Victoria Percy, and Lady Layland Burritt, are among the titled women who are breeding rabbits of various kinds for the fur trade, (says a "Daily News" writer.) This is a hobby that has a distinctive paying end. Rabbit's fur is no longer looked down on. Both Princess Mary and the Duchess of York wear coats of rabbit fur presented to them. Princess Mary has a chinchilla one worth 100 guineas. The Duchess of York has a blue beaver valued at $50 or $60.

Princess Mary's New Home.—where Princess Mary (Viscountess Lascelles) and her husband expect to be in residence for the first time, (says a "Daily Chronicle" writer) has been associated with the Royal Family for 32 years. It was in 1893 that Lord Marcus Beresford, who managed King Edward's racing business, persuaded the then Prince of Wales to transfer his horses in training from the famous Kincorth stables of John Porter to Richmond Marsh of Egerton House, Newmarket. Three years later Princess Mary gave the Prince his first Derby winner.

The Italian Royal Wedding.

It is interesting that Princess Marie-José of Belgium, should have been among the guests at Bucconieri for Princess Mathilde's wedding (says an "Evening Standard" writer.) Her step-there two years ago gave rise to a crop of rumours about a possible engagement to Prince Humbert, which, however, were officially denied. Judging by the warmth of her reception by the local population, Princess Marie-José's popularity is, at any rate, assumed, and it would not be surprising if we heard of more rumours. The Italian Heir-apparent attained his majority a few days ago, and has been busy lately superintending the furnishing of his private apartments in the old Royal Palace of Turin, which is to be his official residence in future. Practically every large city in Italy presented Princess Mathilde with an official wedding present. Most of the gifts were of a practical nature, but some—such as a marble vase standing six feet high—are likely to be a source of difficulty later on. The rumors that the Pope had departed from the usual Vatican custom not to make gifts on the occasion of marriage has been semi-officially denied in the columns of the Vatican organa.

The Dollar Mark Mystery.

A correspondent, who inquires the origin of the dollar mark $, on the reverse of the coin, inquires from his choice from a wide variety of explanations, for nobody seems to know, with any certainty whence the mark arose. One own capital "L," with a stroke, £, stands for "Libra," which is the Latin for pound, just as the "s" is derived from "solidus" and the "d" from "denarius." But the $ of America is a mystery. One explanation is that it represents the initials U.S.: another that it comes from those Spanish "pieces of eight," "peso" of eight reals, whose symbol was a double eight. Another theory is that it is a contraction of the letters P and S, used by the Spaniards to indicate the "peso." Yet another explanation is also based on the Spanish coinage, for the "oro duro" bore on the reverse the Pillars of Hercules with a scroll round them, and the strokes in the dollar mark have been said to represent the pillars and the S the scroll.

None of the explanations seems very satisfactory, observes the "Manchester Guardian."

The Admiral's House.

Mr. John Fortescue, the military historian, King's Librarian to Windsor, is leaving his Hampstead home, the historic Admiral's House, a picture of which, by Constable, is to be seen in the National Gallery with the title, "The Romantic House at Highstead," says "John of London's Weekly." The Admiral in question was Admiral Matthew Baillie, a fighting sea-dog with the title of "The Admiral of the Queen's Royal Navy." The Admiral's House is a fine old residence with a roof like a quarter-deck—this probably old gentlemen used to celebrate anniversaries and naval victories by string salutes from a brass of cannon he kept up there. The quarter-deck is still there from wall to sea. In the meantime, Mr. and Mrs. Fortescue are going to live in their official quarters at Windsor.

Mrs. E. V. Lucas Opens a Shop.

Mrs. E. V. Lucas, the wife of the famous painter, has set up in business as an antique dealer (says the "Daily News.") She has taken a house—a real old Adam house in Adam Street, N.W.1., using the upstairs portion as a flat and the lower rooms for her shop premises. In her recent travels she has succeeded through old chateaux in Normandy, medieval strongholds in Bohemia, and castles in Ireland for treasures. "Sometimes I fall in love with some of my things it hurts me to part with them," she told me. Among her favourites Mrs. Lucas showed me a wedding chest belonging to a Chinese bride of the early sixteenth century, a unique set of Punch bowl and glasses, and a trunk which has long lining copies of the "Spectator" of April 1712.

Four Point Four Beer.

Those optimistic souls who sat out with the intention of pleasing everybody generally end up by pleasing nobody. This, the "Daily News" says, has been the experience of the ingenious inventor of the new liquor which was introduced into Ontario with a great flourish on "New Beer's Day." It was intended to satisfy the "wets" and do no harm to the feelings of the "drys" but is said to be a complete failure. Few people are really satisfied with it, the number of illicit sellers has actually increased in some places, the hotels which restored their bars are doing badly out of their investment, and the Government, which expected to get nearly five million dollars a year revenue, may have to be satisfied with a fifth of that amount. No wonder they call the 4.4 beer "four disappointment."
